

CCB Mysteries Newsletter

December 17, 2018

Greetings members and we the CCB Mysteries chapter would like to wish you the very best for this festive season and for 2019. We would like to thank everyone for their continuing support and words of encouragement and we look forward to an exciting 2019.

When we started off at the end of 2017, our mission was to attract members, host dinner mystery evenings with a twist, and to find ways to build awareness and interest in what we do. We are happy to report that we have managed to accomplish all of this and more despite some minor setbacks.

The year in review

2018 was our first year as a chapter and with it came several challenges along with some very exciting accomplishments and we are happy to report that as 2018 comes to an end we are preparing for some exciting events in the coming year.

Our February 2018 dinner mystery evening

This event took place on February 19 at the CNIB's bayview location and was well attended.

The evening consisted of dinner, a game show, and a murder mystery written by Donna Jodhan.

The murder mystery was titled "the Bermuda triangle" and a jury chosen from among the audience decided who the murderer was and They were asked to choose an appropriate sentence for the murderer.

The cast consisted of:

Donna Jodhan as Judge Dena Brisco,
Kamini Rodhan as the bailiff,
David Wysocki as Donaldo Trump,
Debby Gillespie as Kathleen Wingate,
And Pina Dintino as Hillary Flinton.

David, Debby, and Pina were cast as suspects and the audience found Debby aka Kathleen Wingate guilty.

Our game show host was Kelly Macdonald and door prizes were drawn through out the evening.

The CCB Mysteries chapter donated $100 to send 2 vision impaired kids to summer camp and Rhonda Underhill Grey accepted our donation on behalf of the CNIB.

We thank Richard Papadina of the RBC Papadina Group for his very generous donation and a terrific thanks also goes out to CCB for their donation. Above all, we thank Louise Gillis president of CCB for having attended.

Our November 27 event

This event came in the form of a skit that was performed at the CCB Visionaries Christmas luncheon on Nov 27.

It was a surprise visit from MRS Claus and her sidekicks Elfy and Reindeer.

This threesome made up a fictitious skit where some folks were called out for not being so nice, and 1 person was called out for being nice.

The CCB Mysteries chapter presented a holiday hamper to Susan Pinder for being nice.

The threesome consisted of:

Donna Jodhan as MRS Claus,

Kamini Rodhan as Elfy,
And Ken Rojas as Reindeer.

The event was held at the CNIB's Bayview location.

Our November 28 Improv evening

This event was the first of its kind and for this event guests were invited to participate in improv scenes and situations.

This event was well attended and everyone found themselves laughing, and using their imaginations to keep the evening alive. Light refreshments were provided.

What's in store for 2019

We plan to hold several improv evenings through out the year and if things go according to plan, we are thinking of hosting another dinner mystery evening with some surprises.

Stay tuned for more news on this!

Special thank you acknowledgements

We wish to thank the following persons for their continuing commitment to the CCB Mysteries chapter:

Kamini Rodhan,
